What does the Arts Council Offer?

SINCE 1990
WE HAVE PROVIDED:

- FREE OR AFFORDABLE access to quality arts programming
- VENUE, EXPOSURE, OR OPPORTUNITIES for arts organizations, local galleries or individual artists/performers thus promoting economic stability for area arts
- ARTS EDUCATION EXPERIENCES for the public or volunteer staff in which new skills or knowledge were gained through exposure to the arts
- INTERNET SITE AND OFFICE STAFF that supply information pertaining to community arts events, education or referrals for visual and performing arts/artists via www.EstesArts.com, E-mail, fax, phone or walk-in inquiries, Cultural Arts Comments and E-News
- TO PARTNER/NETWORK with arts organizations, artists/performers, galleries and non-arts related organizations for the betterment of community, and to foster sustainable tourism throughout the state of Colorado.
- DIRECT FINANCIAL SUPPORT of the arts through a Re-gifting Grant Program in which grants are awarded through an application process. (Funded by private donations)
- Our programs reach 40,000 persons annually

Volunteer Opportunities

Over 7,000 hours each year are donated by volunteers of all ages.

The Cultural Arts Council represents all disciplines in the arts.

- Our volunteers count in many ways. Hours are calculated each year and are a valuable asset as inkind contributions when approaching foundations for grants.
- Below are the various ways individuals can become involved as a volunteer for the Arts Council. Please check as many areas as you wish, and a member of the staff or board will contact you.
- Volunteering is a great way to meet new people from around the world, and gain new skills at the same time. It is fun, exciting and provides you with memorable experiences in the arts!
